-----X
JOHN TAYLOR,

Plaintiff,

-against-

JUDGMENT
97-CV-4711 (ERK)

KENNETH S. APFEL, Commissioner of the Social Security Administration, Defendant.
-----X

A Memorandum and Order of the Honorable Edward R. Korman, United States District Judge, having been filed on July 17, 1998, remanding the matter to the Administrative Law Judge who is directed to obtain an expert medical opinion on the issue of the deterioration of Plaintiff's range of motion and Dr. Cruz' new assessment, and directing that if the Administrative Law Judge concludes that plaintiff does not suffer from a listed impairment, then the Administrative Law Judge should obtain more specific residual functional capacity reports from plaintiff's treating physicians to determine whether Taylor is capable of performing sedentary work, and directing that the Administrative Law Judge is also free to consider the newly submitted evidence from Dr. Cruz; it is ORDERED and ADJUDGED that the case is remanded to the Administrative Law Judge for further development of the record consistent with the Court's memorandum and order of July 17, 1998.

Dated: Brooklyn, New York
July 22, 1998
